

National School Breakfast Week

“Create an Ad for School Breakfast!” Art Contest

Students! Show us why you  School Breakfast!

Contest Information

- This contest is open to students in grades 1 through 12
- The illustration each student creates must be his or her own, unique invention. Entries must be original, not plagiarized and not evocative of any existing commercial characters so as not to infringe on any copyrights and trademarks.
- The illustrated artwork must be hand-drawn or sketched on an 8½ X 11 sheet of paper. The design can be in color or black and white.
- For the entry to be valid, the student must complete the contest entry form in full.

Contestants will be judged in three categories: Elementary (1-5); Middle (6-8) and High (9-12)

All state contest entries shall become the copyrighted property of the Kentucky School Nutrition Association (KSNA). Contest entries will not be returned. Successful entries may be used for a basis for commercial design, but are subject to modification by KSNA, including but not limited to the overall design. Usage may include and is not limited to usage on the KSNA website, publications, t-shirts, mugs, posters, and other merchandise.

Local Contest Deadline

School Entries must be received by the close of business on March 13, 2018 to:

Julie Metcalf, School Nutrition Director—Central Office

The entries will be judged and local winners will be announced. The local winners will be sent to the state competition.

Local Winners will be recognized at a future Montgomery County School Board Meeting. State Winners will receive $100.00!
